In All Heroes Are Bastards, we are transported to a dystopian Germany where three ordinary people gain superpowers through an artefact. As they fight against an authoritarian government, they must save teenagers and expose the truth.

Malik, Dina and Hamza acquire supernatural powers through a mysterious artefact. When the government starts kidnapping teenagers and brainwashing them at the secret Z:integra facility, the three join forces. In a desperate race against time, they seek evidence against the Interior Minister, Canan, and fight to free the teenagers. But state violence, betrayal and their own inner struggles push them to their limits, while the artefact threatens to fall into the wrong hands.

When homicide detective Tjark Wolf and police chief Femke Folkmer make a grisly discovery on the Friesian North Sea coast, they have no idea that this is just the start of their cooperation on a series of criminal cases, which will push them to their very limits – and even a step beyond.

Episode 1: The Grave on the Beach The fictitious town of Werlesiel is a tranquil spot on the Friesian coast. But the idyll is broken when a young woman disappears in a dense sea fog after a night out partying. Femke Folkmer, local police chief, does not believe that this is a regular missing persons case and starts looking into it. Soon after, Tjark Wolf arrives from the criminal investigation division (CID) in Wilhelmshaven to investigate the disappearance of the unknown woman.

Episode 2: A Deadly Trap While working a drugs case for the CID in Wilhelmshaven, Femke's and Tjark's colleague Ceylan Özer gets seriously injured, with her life hanging in the balance. Determined to catch the smugglers, Femke and Tjark chase down every lead and soon realise that in truth, a much bigger crime is underway here.

STORM IS COMING is the new two-part television film by Matti Geschonneck, director of “The Conference”. This gripping, highly topical drama explores themes of exclusion and humanity. It is authentically staged in historical locations and based on a novel by Oskar Maria Graf.

Set in a Bavarian village from 1914 to Hitler’s rise in 1933, Storm is coming follows shoemaker Julius Kraus as political hatred and personal tragedy collide. Caught between neighbors, family secrets, and the revelation of his Jewish identity, Kraus struggles to stay neutral. When inheritance, betrayal, and escalating violence threaten his life, he must confront a society descending into fascism. A harrowing tale of morality, courage, and human fragility.

Street-smart city rabbits Max, Kela and Chester challenge ancient traditions at a renowned forest boarding school where powerful magic and tight-knit community reign supreme. The newcomers transform both themselves and the academy forever.

Welcome to Rabbit Academy, a school like no other! Here, young rabbits don't just study math and rabbit history – they master ancient magical techniques passed down through generations. Never before have city rabbits been admitted – until one day, fearless Max, naive Chester, and pessimistic Kela arrive at the gates. From potions class to secret “Stompcraft” Kung-Fu moves, from shrinking yourself to applying a magic confidence-booster that gets out of control, the three city rabbits realize that life at Rabbit Academy is much more difficult than they thought – but also much more fun!

MOUNTAIN MURDERS SEASON 5

BY TOM ZENKER, CARSTEN FIEBELER, JOHN DELBRIDGE, HEIDI KRANZ, A.O.

GENRE

Crime
5 Seasons, 60 x 50 min

Chief Inspector Benedikt Beissl has been running his police station in Berchtesgaden pretty much on his own for many years, when all of a sudden the top brass decide to assign him a new colleague:

Jerry Paulsen is not only everything that Beissl is not, namely charming, talkative and open-hearted and as the son of an American GI, speaks English fluently. But all this bothers Beissl a lot less than the fact that Jerry also happens to be going out with his beloved daughter Johanna – this guy is practically his son-in-law! With his winning ways, the “wannabe Obama” really gets on Beissl’s wick. But when the pair are on a case, their private issues remain outside the door – well for the most part.

The stories of a mismatched pair of detectives and their family entanglements provide the perfect blend of incidental humor, family life and a varied array of criminal cases – all set against the imposing backdrop of the magnificent Alps. What else could you want in a successful police series?

Munich native Ursula Glück is shot and killed in her sleep during a dream honeymoon on the Inca Trail. Her husband, Jona Kepler, the sole witness, claims they were attacked by two men. Back in Munich, homicide detectives investigate, but suspicion falls on Kepler. With no motive or evidence, the truth remains elusive.

How do you solve a murder on the remote Inca Trail, with no witnesses, no weapon, and no evidence? Chief Inspector Rita Berg faces this challenge after Ursula Glück is killed during an alleged robbery. Her husband, Jona Kepler, claims innocence, but suspicion lingers. Despite a lack of motive, Berg keeps digging. Eighteen months later, in New York, she uncovers a life insurance policy worth a million dollars. The investigation picks up speed, leading her team to Peru, where conflicting accounts, a matching suspect, and another robbery deepen the mystery. After a three-year investigation, new evidence emerges, pointing to Kepler. The prosecution has no doubt anymore and hands the man over to the judiciary, though he continues to protest his innocence until the very end.

A murder with no witnesses, no weapon, and no evidence – Chief Inspector Rita Berg must solve the unsolvable on the remote Inca Trail.

In the second season of “The Palace”, set in 1990 Berlin, ballet director Regina Feldmann and a trio of up-and-coming young dancers face personal and professional turmoil as they navigate love, fears and ambitions while battling to save the theater and their world’s chaotic transformation.

In “The Palace Season 2”, post-Wall Berlin is a city in transition, and the legendary Palace theatre is threatened by dwindling audiences and the new directors plan to turn it into a casino. Ballet director Regina Feldmann faces a personal crisis when she falls in love with a younger man and becomes pregnant. Torn between her career and her feelings, Regina must take a decision that will turn not just her own life upside down. Meanwhile the company struggles to join forces, trying to save their stage and create a future together, at a time when everything seems possible and nothing is to last ...

“The Palace”, directed by Uli Edel, was initially envisioned as a miniseries. However, the overwhelming audience response led to the decision to commission a second season of the acclaimed show.

Against the backdrop of Berlin's great revue theater, in a divided Germany, two women are searching for their roots. A moving, exhilarating and life-affirming story.

East Berlin, 1988. To celebrate the 40th anniversary of the Republic, an extravagant birthday show is undergoing rehearsals at the Friedrichstadt-Palast. During these exciting hours, young dancer Christine suddenly comes face to face with her doppelgänger: Marlene, a businesswoman from West Germany seated in the audience, who happens to be Christine's twin sister she knew nothing about. In this fateful moment, two worlds, which could not be more different, suddenly collide. To find out about their respective lives in the East and the West, the two sisters swap places, taking enormous risks and pushing their emotions to the limit yet still having great fun in this adventure of a lifetime ...

This lavish, highly entertaining tentpole production was shot at the world's biggest theater stage. "The Palace" is directed by Uli Edel ("The Baader Meinhof Complex") and stars Svenja Jung ("Deutschland 89"), Daniel Donskoy ("Victoria", "The Crown") and Heino Ferch ("Ku'Damm", "Downfall").

THE TRUTH BEHIND
A BRUTAL CRIME

SACHA

BY LEA FAZER

Anne Dupraz, a respected and feared prosecutor, is in custody for shooting a man, now between life and death. She admits her guilt but seems unable to explain her act. The situation is exceptional. As most of the prosecutors know Anne well, Carla Meier, a Swiss-German native who recently arrived in Geneva, was called in. The case is all the more murky because the man Anne shot was an underworld personality who frequented the world of nightlife and prostitution. To understand how Anne did not hesitate to sacrifice her career and her freedom to shoot this man, Carla will have to unravel the threads of the past. By questioning all the protagonists in this affair, while in police custody, Carla and her colleagues will gradually uncover the secret that Anne would have preferred to keep for herself forever. It is her story that the series will reveal. The story of a release: her own voice.

Moah. Different. An overprotective mother. An absent father. A boss who never listens. Jealous, unpleasant colleagues. No future prospects. A dangerous neighbourhood. A beautiful stranger who ignores him. And all of this takes place 45,000 years ago – making life no easier at all.

Moah is the first French live-action series produced entirely without dialogue or music. Supported by the Nouvelle-Aquitaine region (in collaboration with the CNC) and the Conseil départemental de la Dordogne, the show was filmed in the Dordogne – the cradle of prehistory – during October and November 2019. Key locations included the Gorges de l'Enfer, Europe's largest rock overhang, where filming had never before been authorized. Managed by the Association for the Protection and Development of the Eternal Valley of the Vézère, this listed site is part of a larger initiative to safeguard the forest and its knowledge for future generations.

Picking up only a few weeks after the end of Season 1, as a large fire engulfs the small town of Eden, a fateful chain of events is triggered, and Tannie Maria, Jessie and Khaya get dragged into a multiple murder investigation that unearths the small town's darkest secrets.

After the terrible events in the Swartberg Pass, and Maria's past turning up from Scotland, she's thoroughly rattled - based on Scottish law, the McClintocks do have a legal claim to at least half of her land, and she fears that she might find herself losing her childhood home. Jessie is all loved up with Regardt but, honestly, a bit bored of life and slowly realises that she wants more. Hattie meanwhile is tired of Marius and all the town's complaints, and so she decides to run for mayor. The whole town turns out for a charity drive-in movie night. But the event is interrupted by cries of fire, and large parts of the town burnt down. When the smoke clears, local do-gooder Seventh Day Adventist Frank is found dead. As the town starts to mourn this tragedy, evidence emerges that he was murdered, and the fire was started to cover up this crime - with his wife Georgie as the prime suspect. She immediately turns to Tannie Maria and Jessie for help in uncovering what exactly happened to Frank.

After her husband dies in a seemingly accidental road accident, small-town undertaker Brunhilde Blum uncovers the truth behind his death – a murder connected to dangerous people. As she grapples with her grief, Blum embarks on a perilous quest for revenge, confronting the darkest corners of her own soul.

For undertaker Brunhilde Blum, death is a part of everyday life. But when her husband, police officer Mark Thaler, is struck by a car and dies in front of her, her world is shattered. Struggling with the loss and the prospect of raising their teenage daughter Nela and young son Tim alone, Blum is determined to find out who was behind the hit-and-run. The investigation stalls, and the well-meaning condolences from Mark's colleagues and local figures offer little comfort. When Blum discovers a phone hidden in Mark's motorcycle case, she stumbles upon unsettling revelations. As she unravels the truth, Blum's journey for vengeance takes her down a perilous path, exposing hidden dangers and forcing her to confront the shadows within herself.

Bernhard Aichner, bestselling author of the novels, is thrilled with the scripts for Season 2, praising them for brilliantly continuing the story for TV audiences.

Max, an ambitious lobbyist in Berlin, sees his dominance challenged when determined Valerie arrives from Brussels, vying for success at a rival firm. As chemistry sparks between them, they engage in a strategic battle, each pursuing their own goals.

“Public Affairs” is a sharp, fast-paced screwball comedy set in modern-day Berlin’s political scene, following two rival lobbyists, Max Lenter and Valerie Hazard. Max, a charming rising star with working-class roots, works for the top firm ABC & Partner, while Valerie, a shrewd diplomat’s daughter, arrives from Brussels to compete for influence. As they clash over high-stakes cases, from environmental policy to pharmaceuticals, their witty, cutthroat rivalry unfolds. The show’s central story revolves around Germany’s controversial exit from lignite mining in Max’s homeland, blending humor and intrigue as they navigate the absurdities of political lobbying.

“Public Affairs” offers a cheeky, fast-paced, and entertaining glimpse into the exciting lives of two lobbyists in Berlin. The series provides a surprising, emotional, and delightfully funny look behind the scenes of power, all in the style of classic screwball comedy, set in the political jungle of the capital.

An incorruptible judge has spent his career fighting organised crime. But the tables are turned when his son is found guilty of a hit-and-run.

For Judge Michael Jacobi his job is a vocation. Nonetheless, he opts to put himself above the law after his son Julian flees the scene of a car accident. The motorcyclist in the coma is known to Jacobi. He is the son of the infamous mob boss Radan Sailovic, whom Jacobi once put behind bars. The otherwise fearless judge knows precisely how much danger his son will be in if the Sailovics learn what happened. His attempt to cover up the car accident, with the help of his friend Franz, goes completely awry, however, and he soon comes under pressure from the investigations of Detective Kirchner. Meanwhile, Arija Sailovic, who does not believe that his brother's accident was simply an accident, attempts to take over the family business. This triggers a bloody gang war with shady factory owner Lindner, who is also a danger to Jacobi. The judge finds himself forced to betray all his principles – to save his son and his career.

"Your Honor" is a gripping three-part adaptation of the hit Israeli series "Kvodo", filmed against the stunning backdrops of Tyrol and Vienna.

A medieval crime thriller about a Tallinn pharmacist who has to uncover the secret behind a terrible wave of murders that threatens to wreck the entire Christian world.

Melchior Wakenstede is a clever and curious apothecary who, in addition to healing the sick, solves the mysteries that are upsetting his town. In a medieval world where people look for signs from God or the Devil, everything the Melchior accomplishes seems truly magical. Some even believe that Melchior's detective skills speak with the dead! However, his "secret weapon" primarily lies in his keen ability to nitpick treacherous details rather than in comprehending the scant information required before people reveal ...

"Melchior" is a medieval crime thriller, which is based on Indrek Hargla's series of best-selling crime novels full of secrets, adventure, and suspense. It has been translated into German, Hungarian, Russian, Finnish and French. Filmed in Tallinn, the modern-day capital of Estonia, which was part of the German cultural map for more than 600 years.

Series 10 × 30 min

In the surprising comedy drama “Chameleon”, the flamboyant wannabe-actor Chris and his three childhood friends want to make it in life and escape the deprived neighborhood they grew up in.

A lot of other kids chose the “get rich fast”-option of drug crime, but the four friends manage so far to stay on the right side of the law, although that becomes almost impossible when Chris’ mother is fired and his family is in dire need of money. When they accidentally have a run-in with local gangster Murat which ends up with them owing the guy 10k, things heat up very fast. Will they be able to stay on the right track or will the gangster life turn out to be inescapable? What about their dreams?

“Chameleon” is offering a compelling exploration of socioeconomic struggles and the temptation of criminality in deprived neighborhoods, providing audiences with thought-provoking insights into the complexities of urban life.

GENRE
Spy Drama
Series, 6 × 45 min

“Davos 1917” is a spy drama based on real events that occurred in the early days of the European Secret Services

The First World War is ravaging Europe. By contrast, Davos, the noble spa town in the Swiss Alps, seems like an oasis of peace. But behind the scenes, neutral Switzerland takes centre stage in a relentless battle between the secret agents of the world powers. The young nurse Johanna Gabathuler unexpectedly gets caught between the fronts of the spies: to win back her daughter, she gets involved in a deadly game with the German Secret Service – and suddenly becomes the tip of the scales in a risky plan that decides between war and peace.

“Davos 1917” is a major European big budget production by Contrast Film Zürich and Letterbox Filmproduktion Hamburg (producers of “Bad Banks”). The cinematically stunning and thrilling 6-part show is being co-produced by Amalia Film, Swiss television broadcaster SRF and the German production company ARD Degeto.

“Fast” tells the case-by-case story of the Fugitive Active Search Team within the Finnish National Bureau of Investigation. The elite team’s mission is to improve domestic safety by tracking down and arresting dangerous or skilful fugitives. For each case, the team has 48 hours to locate the target before their trace turns cold.

The unit’s leader is Karita, a former homicide squad boss, whose efficiency is based on her ability to see the fugitives as individuals, not just as faceless criminals who are born evil. A fugitive’s motive for escaping can be anything from revenge to fear – or love. Once the motive is identified, the fugitive can be found without endangering the safety of others. At least that is what Karita thinks. The chase becomes personal when Karita’s closest friend and colleague Niklas disappears during a fugitive case and is presumed dead. Karita’s mission is to find out what happened to him while trying to lead her team and live up to her superiors’ expectations.

“Fast” is a spectacular and thrilling crime / action series, that brings together Finland’s greatest talents.

The Lady Diplomat, a brave and unconventional professional woman, travels the world far from the red carpets and banquets to save German citizens in crisis. She follows her own moral compass and bends the rules when she has to get things done.

In Death of a Nun, German ambassador Karla Lorenz investigates the mysterious death of a young nun in a Vatican convent. When the victim is revealed to be Luisa Bartels, a nun who had planned to leave the order, Karla is drawn into a complex case. Confronted with uncooperative responses from the Mother Superior and Cardinal Köhlbauer, she teams up with Roman detective Motte to uncover the truth. As they delve deeper, they expose disturbing secrets and a web of historical secrecy and allegations of sexual abuse within the revered religious order.

An exciting crime movie collection set in the world of high-stakes international diplomacy and moral dilemmas, with a brave and unconventional heroine played by Natalia Wörner ("The Pillars of the Earth").

EP1 Copykiller: When a series of ritualistic murders shocks the windswept dunes of Husum, young detective Ria Larsen must prove herself by solving a case that mirrors the crimes of a notorious serial killer—one who's still locked away in a psychiatric facility. As she navigates mounting pressure and a dangerous psychological game, Ria uncovers dark secrets that once destroyed her predecessor.

EP2 The Viking: After a man dressed as a Viking washes up dead on the shore, Ria Larsen returns from medical leave to find herself sidelined from the case. Defying orders, she launches her own investigation into a reclusive Viking reenactment community, exposing a world of rituals, revenge, and a young boy caught in the crossfire.

EP3 The Marine Biologist: When a body vanishes into the sea before a witness's eyes and later reappears under suspicious circumstances, Ria Larsen teams up with a mysterious marine biologist to unravel the case. As new bodies surface and personal ties are revealed, Ria must decide who to trust in a web of secrets, betrayal, and environmental extremism.

The Hegel Case: The famous forensic phonetician Matthias Hegel is a luminary in his field. Even the slightest deviation in the sound of a voice is enough for him to distinguish truth from lies and thus convict criminals. When Hegel confesses to a gruesome murder, true-crime podcaster Julia Ansong believes there has been a mistake and does everything in her power to uncover the truth. But with her research she puts herself in mortal danger ...

Frequency of Death: When the young mother Cecile Dorm discovers that her baby has been kidnapped, she is horrified and immediately wants to call the police on 911 – but her husband, psychologist Jonathan Dorm, snatches the phone from her hand, overpowers his distraught wife and locks her in the attic of the house. The audio recording of the emergency call Cecile made is the only clue forensic phonetician Prof. Matthias Hegel and true-crime podcaster Julia Ansong have in hand.

Berlin is sexy, deadly and dangerous. The German capital is not only a party mecca, it tops in crime and murder as well. Inspectors Nina Rubin and Robert Karow are bigcity homicide cops and an uneven duo:

Nina is a hothead who tends to explode when confronted with individual injustice, while Robert is a cool, rational thinker with a healthy dose of mistrust for anyone and anything. Their murder cases lead them behind the scenes of glamorous Berlin, while a certain unsolved case hangs over it all, putting their partnership to the test: Robert was transferred from the narcotics department, where he has a shadowy history. Robert's former partner was found shot, and the murder weapon was found on Robert ...

A highly successful, gripping crime series set in vibrant Berlin, starring Mark Waschke ("Dark", "Generation War") as a brilliant logical investigator alongside Meret Becker ("Babylon Berlin", "Fabian") as his loyal colleague.

The tension between two women, which stems from their different backgrounds and investigative styles, drives the cases forward and pushes them to their limits – privately and professionally. But despite the turbulent circumstances and their often unconventional approaches, they always retain their sense of self, forming an unconventional, modern – and ultimately powerful – team.

When these two strong women clash with their conservative boss, it creates conflict but it also intensifies their determination, driving them even harder to pursue the truth and solve their cases. These cases are complex and contemporary – from online dating apps and the live murder of a social media influencer to a public witch hunt for paedophiles – and they always unfold differently ...

A crime series with a strong female focus just perfect for fans of contemporary crime thrillers.

A German single mom and a Polish cop have to work together to solve the cases that straddle the Oder river – learning as much about themselves as about each other in the process.

In the German-Polish police station in Swiecko by Frankfurt on the Oder, the successful odd couple Adam Raczek and Olga Lenski handle the investigations that involve Polish and German sides. Olga is a single mom, juggling her family life and police career with difficulty sometimes. Adam has Polish roots, but is at home on both sides of the border, and has a hard time dealing with his partner's chaotic private life sometimes. Despite the geographic proximity, there's a lot that divides the cops on both sides of the border, as they keep finding out in the course of their international cases ...

Crime knows no borders. Neither does a good detective show. The odd couple detectives are perfectly cast with Maria Simon ("Goodbye, Lenin!") and Lucas Gregorowicz ("Soul Kitchen", "Lammbock", "Our Mothers", "Our Fathers") in the leads.

Fritzi (12) and Sophie (12) are inseparable friends – until Sophie has to secretly flee to the West with her mother. However, Fritz refuses to accept that she will never see Sophie again.

GDR, Leipzig 1989: Germany is still divided into East and West. Friends Fritz (12) and Sophie (12) don't really care – until Sophie's mother secretly flees with her daughter to the West. There, Sophie struggles with prejudice against "people from the GDR" and, above all, with homesickness. Fritz's attempt to bring Sophie at least her dog Sputnik fails at the heavily guarded border. Fritz realizes that only the growing desire for freedom in her country can bring her closer to her goal.

In a captivating narrative set against the backdrop of 1989 divided Germany, "Fritzi and Sophie – A borderless Friendship" intertwines themes of unwavering friendship, resilience in the face of adversity, and the historical significance of the fall of the Berlin Wall, offering audiences a poignant exploration of childhood bonds and the pursuit of freedom.

“The Hunted” documents the personal journey of Germany’s only Tour de France winner Jan Ullrich. For the first time, he speaks candidly about his greatest triumph, about the doping scandal that ended his career, and about his dark descent into drug abuse.

In “Jan Ullrich – The Hunted” this exceptional athlete speaks for the first time about his own journey. This four-part documentary takes an exclusive and critical look at his career, his successes, and his dizzying fall from grace. In the late 1990s, Ullrich sparked huge enthusiasm for cycling in Germany. Then Germany’s only Tour de France winner took a wrong turn: doping, alcohol, and criminal offenses. Together with Jan Ullrich, the viewers travel to the most important locations in his life: from his early life to the scene of his great triumph in Paris and then onto the setting for his most difficult personal defeats – with commentary from Ullrich himself, his former cycling rival Lance Armstrong, his friends, his colleagues and his family.

For the first time, Jan Ullrich shares his personal journey, providing viewers with an exclusive and intimate look into the highs and lows of his remarkable career.

"Munich '72" will relive the 5th of September 1972, minute-by-minute. A group of Palestinian terrorists invade the Olympic Village and abduct members of the Israeli Olympic Team. The ensuing political debacle resulted in a notoriously botched rescue operation that ultimately ended with all 11 hostages' deaths.

"Munich '72" is a three part documentary series that examines the events of September 5th, 1972 with all the hindsight that 50 years provides. Using dramatic recreations of the events to bring them to life, the series features the Palestinian, Israeli and German perspectives. Featuring in depth interviews with former Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Barak, Ex-Mossad Boss Zvi Zamir and Israeli Olympians Esther Roth Chamorro, Sholmit Nir and Gad Tsobari the series examines all angles of the fateful day.

"Munich '72" is a blend of documentary and fiction, supported by newly declassified protocols and directed by Roman Shumunov ("Berenshtein – The Last Partisan"). The documentary will present a close-up and dramatic representation of one of the most infamous terror strikes of the 20th century.

It was probably the most murderous conference in human history. The subject: plans to murder 11 million Jews in Europe.

For 21-year-old Margot Friedländer, who had been doing forced labor near the Wannsee villa since 1940, a painful new chapter began after the conference's consequences. In 1943, she and her brother Ralph tried to escape. Margot hid from the Gestapo for months until her arrest in 1944, after which she was sent to the Theresienstadt ghetto. She was the only family member to survive the Holocaust. For the documentary, Margot returned to the "Villa am Wannsee", where the conference took place 80 years earlier. "An invitation to a meeting on the 'Final Solution of the Jewish Question', followed by breakfast", she reflects in the interview. "I will never understand how such a thing could happen." The documentary also features historians like Barbara Schieb, Prof. Peter Klein, and Prof. Götz Aly, who have extensively studied and analyzed the Holocaust.

In “Deadly Shadows”, Berlin LKA investigator Philip Nabrow must solve the murder of two police officers while working with his daughter Elisa for the first time, all while grappling with a secret he desperately wants to keep from her.

When two police officers are mysteriously murdered in Berlin, investigator Philip Nabrow faces an intense challenge as he leads the case. Despite their lack of connections, Nabrow's team explores various theories—racketeering, homophobia, organized crime—but hits dead ends. The investigation takes a new turn when the focus shifts to a boxing club, revealing rampant drug dealing. Nabrow's daughter Elisa, from the drug squad, is brought into the case, creating tension between them as Nabrow struggles to keep a personal secret hidden. As the case grows more complex, Nabrow finds himself not only investigating but also becoming a target.

In “Deadly Shadows”, set in the gritty streets of Berlin, investigator Philip Nabrow teams up with his daughter Elisa for the first time to solve the murder of two police officers.

In March '81, Johannes Erlemann (11) is kidnapped and imprisoned in a tiny dungeon. While his wealthy father is in custody, Johannes' mother Gabi desperately fights for her son's life.

It's the 1970s and Jochem Erlemann is the most charming rascal of the German business world. Even though his business practices are a thorn in the side of the state, the public prosecutor's office cannot put a stop to his game. On the contrary: Jochem even goes as far as to invite his "enemies" to the wild parties that he and his wife Gaby throw at the home they share with their boys, 11-year-old Johannes and his brother Andreas. The boys want for nothing until fate intervenes. The older boy Andreas is diagnosed with a rare form of cancer. Then in December 1980, Jochem Erlemann is arrested and held on remand. When Johannes is then kidnapped, it falls to his mother Gaby to raise the ransom of 3 million German marks, and deal with the shrewd kidnapers and distrustful police. After a two-week ordeal and a dramatic ransom handover, the young boy is freed and, in the courtroom, finds the strength to look the culprits in the eye.

With the real-life Johannes Erlemann on hand to advise, Oscar®-nominated director Marc Rothmund was entrusted with the task of telling an authentic story.

THE CONFERENCE

BY MATTI GESCHONNECK

GENRE

Historical Drama
TV-Movie 108 min

A historically accurate, haunting drama about a meeting that was part of planning the Holocaust.

On the morning of 20th January 1942, in a villa on the lakefront of the Wannsee in Berlin, leading members of the Nazi regime came together. They had been invited by Reinhard Heydrich to a meeting followed by breakfast. The sole topic on the agenda that morning was what the Nazis called the Final Solution to the Jewish Question: the organisation of the systematic mass murder of millions of Jews across Europe.

The film follows the protocol of this meeting. It was shot at the original location at Wannsee Lake in Berlin and produced by Constantin Film for the 80th commemoration day of the conference. It stars some of the most well-known German-speaking actors in the lead roles: Philipp Hochmair (“The Experiment”), Johannes Allmayer (“Colonia Dignidad”), Maximilian Brückner (“Cherryblossoms”), Thomas Loibl (“Toni Erdmann”) and Rafael Stachowiak (“Undine”).

AN OPPRESSIVE
PSYCHOLOGICAL
THRILLER THAT TURNS
EVERYDAY FAMILY LIFE
INTO A NIGHTMARE OF DOUBT AND FEAR

PLAYDATE

BY FRED GRIVOIS

A family's move from Paris to the countryside promises peace and renewal – until their young son returns from a playdate with strange marks on his back. What begins as unease soon spirals into paranoia, exposing the fragile boundaries of trust, family, and fear.

PLAYDATE tells the unsettling story of Nicolas and Sophie, who trade Parisian chaos for a quiet rural life with their son Maxime. At first, the family thrives in their seemingly welcoming new community. But when Maxime returns home with mysterious marks after a playdate, unease grows into suspicion. What might be dismissed as an accident becomes a festering doubt that corrodes the couple's trust. As tensions rise, they descend into paranoia, questioning their neighbors, each other, and even their own perceptions. Beneath the surface of normal family life, a chilling psychological drama unfolds.

BATTLE OF OSLO tells the true story of Colonel Eriksen, who, on April 9, 1940, sank a German warship approaching Oslo. His bold decision delayed the Nazi invasion, saved the King and government, but later left him unfairly judged by a military commission.

A gripping historical war thriller chronicling the courage and decisive action of Colonel Birger Eriksen during the German invasion of Norway. On April 9, 1940, Eriksen commands the undermanned Oscarsborg Fortress and orders fire on the approaching cruiser Blücher, delaying the Nazi advance and saving the King, government, and Norway's gold reserves. The film interweaves the battle's tense unfolding with Eriksen's postwar struggle before a military commission to defend his honor, offering a powerful blend of war action and psychological drama.

After years trapped in a stifling life wrangling cattle in the wilds of Canada, Charlotte escapes her controlling husband in a beat-up 1968 Ford Bronco. Her journey leads her back to New York, where she seeks refuge at her childhood home on Park Avenue. There, her estranged mother, Kit, greets her with sharp wit and a blunt question: “Am I dying?”

Over the course of six tumultuous weeks, Charlotte, fiery and irreverent, clashes and connects with Kit, a master of secrets and lies. Together, they navigate old wounds, shared history, and unspoken truths. As Charlotte reconnects with Anders, the building’s doorman and her former love, she is drawn back into the world she left behind at 18. Set against the vibrant backdrop of New York’s Upper East Side and its colorful, intertwined residents, “Park Avenue” delves into the intricate and messy bond between a mother and daughter.

Starring BAFTA Award winner and three-time Emmy nominee Fiona Shaw (“Killing Eve”, “Fleabag”, “True Detective: Season 4”), Katherine Waterston (“Babylon”, “Mid90s”), and BAFTA and Independent Spirit Award nominee Chaske Spencer (“The English”, “The Twilight Saga”), “Park Avenue” promises a poignant and compelling exploration of family, identity, and redemption.

Rachel is a teenage girl who has spent her entire life isolated in a house deep in the woods. Her family follows mysterious cults, and Rachel's education has been strictly based on their principles. When her father, Philip, passes away, Rachel is forbidden from any contact with the outside world by her mother, Carol, who keeps the corpse in the house. Only occasional trips into the woods for rituals in the hopes of reviving Philip's lifeless body are allowed. However, as word of Philip's disappearance spreads outside, suspicion arises.

WEDDINGS AND WOKES: A FAMILY DILEMMA

BY SÖNKE WORTMANN

GENRE
Comedy
90 min

When Anna and Thomas invite their eccentric family to the Tyrolean Alps for their wedding, tensions rise as secrets, unresolved issues, and chaotic family dynamics threaten to derail the big day. From unexpected careers to overprotective parenting, nothing is as it seems, and the planned wedding is far from guaranteed.

Anna and Thomas are about to marry and have invited their family to the Tyrolean Alps. Stephan grumbles in the ski lift, reflecting on the lives of the Böttchers, Wittmanns, Bergers, and Königs: Anna unexpectedly found success as an actress, while Thomas is on the verge of joining a real estate company's board – if he passes his mandatory sensitivity training. His wife Elisabeth still teaches but secretly supplements their income with Bitcoin trading. René, married to Dorothea and a father of twins, has become an overprotective helicopter dad. Stephan was recently dismissed from his university professor position due to an incident. Meanwhile, their teenage children, Cajus and Antigone, bring additional chaos. The wedding, and much more, is now in jeopardy.

Kira and Ian, two 30-somethings, meet all too briefly over a winter weekend on the Isle of Skye and form a sudden, deep, and surprising bond. Back in London, they try to move on with their separate lives – but both have to stop running from themselves before they are ready to truly meet.

“Falling Into Place” is written and directed by Aylin Tezel, one of Germany's most prolific young actresses. Like all great love stories, it is not just about the love between two individuals, but also about the dreams and anxieties of a generation.

Aylin Tezel (“7500”, “Unbroken”) and Chris Fulton (“Outlaw King”, “Bridgerton”) head up a cast including Alexandra Dowling (“Game of Thrones”), Samuel Anderson (“Gunpowder Milkshake”), Layo-Christina Akinlode (“The End of the Fing World”), Kathryn Howden (“Malevolent”), Michael Carter (“The Illusionist”) and Rory Fleck-Byrne (“This is Going to Hurt”). DoP Julian Krubasik (“We Are Next of Kin”, “Dig Deeper: The Disappearance of Birgit Meier”) was behind the camera. Grammy nominated composer Jon Hopkins (“Monsters”) and Ben Lukas Boysen (“The Collini Case”) created the score music. And Des Hamilton (“Jojo Rabbit”) was responsible for the casting.

The passionate story of the life and love of Lucia, the famous veiled courtesan who broke Casanova's heart ...

“A Beautiful Imperfection” tells the empowering story of Lucia, Giacomo Casanova's only great love, who leaves Italy for Amsterdam after her face has been disfigured by smallpox. Sixteen years later, they meet again when she has reinvented herself as a veiled courtesan now known by the name of Galathée. Without revealing her true identity or showing her face, Lucia and Giacomo become lovers once again. Will Lucia dare to reveal herself and turn her weakness into her strength so that she can be truly free in the eyes of her great love?

Michiel van Erp (“Open Seas”, “Stromboli”, and the award-winning series “Ramses”) directed the English-language romantic drama. He created a modern version with a strong female character, set against the stunning backdrop of Venice. “A Beautiful Imperfection” is based on the historical novel “In Lucia's Eyes” by Arthur Japin, which has been published in over 20 languages and sold more than a million copies worldwide. Jonah Hauer-King (“The Little Mermaid”) is cast in the role of Giacomo Casanova and Dar Zuzovsky (“Hostages”), his first and greatest love, as the courtesan Galathée.
